Lisa J. Huriash reports:

The Coral Springs City Manager is headed to two major cities in Japan to talk about city government and business planning.

City Manager Michael Levinson was in Dubai several months ago for the same reason. He leaves Sunday for less than a week to Tokyo and Hiroshima. He did not return three telephone calls to his office and cell phone for comment.

City commissioner Roy Gold said he was told the government group bringing Levinson was funding the trip. He didn't know the name of the group.
